

The First of Long Island Corporation Announces Pricing of Public Offering of 1.2 million Shares of Common Stock

GLEN HEAD, N.Y., May 4, 2016 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- The First of Long Island Corporation (Nasdaq: FLIC), the parent company of The First National Bank of Long Island, today announced the pricing of an underwritten public offering of 1.2 million shares of common stock at a price of $29.00 per share, for gross proceeds of $34.8 million. After deducting the underwriting discount and estimated offering expenses, the Company expects to receive net proceeds of approximately $32.5 million. The Company has also granted the underwriter a 30-day option to purchase up to an additional 180,000 shares of common stock at the same price and on the same terms and conditions.

The offering is expected to close on May 10, 2016, subject to customary closing conditions.

Sandler O'Neill + Partners, L.P. served as sole underwriter for the offering. The shares are being issued pursuant to a prospectus supplement and prospectus filed as part of an effective shelf registration statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") on Form S-3 (File No. 333-190505).

The Company expects to use the net proceeds of this offering for general corporate purposes, including support for organic growth and financing possible acquisitions of branches or fee-based businesses.
