BROOKLYN, N.Y. - March 29, 2019

On Monday, March 25, 2019, The First National Bank of Long Island celebrated the grand opening of its new full-service branch on the corner of Fort Hamilton Parkway and 86th Street in Bay Ridge. The ribbon cutting ceremony was well attended by local community leaders and Bank Executives. This is the Bank's 52nd branch and its third location in the borough of Brooklyn. Branch Manager JoAnn Loddo, a longtime Brooklyn resident and active community board member said, "I was given a great opportunity to manage our third branch in Brooklyn for The First National Bank of Long Island. We are different than our competitors because we have more personal approach. Getting to know our customers in a more relaxed branch environment is unique and it makes our customers more comfortable. We have been getting positive feedback from the prospective customers on the branch decor, especially the fireplace. Also, as a longtime Bay Ridge resident, it's a more rewarding experience that I can support the local community organizations and businesses in my own backyard.”

The new branch is conveniently located at 559 86th Street off the corner of Fort Hamilton Parkway. It is fully equipped with a 24-hour ATM with a fireplace in a living room style setting. Banking hours are Monday – Thursday 9:00 am to 4:00 pm; Friday 9:00 am to 7:00 pm and Saturday from 9:00 am to 1:00 pm.
